Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Awards Contract

SAN DIEGO — SRI International of Menlo Park, California is being awarded a $8,313,035 cost plus fixed fee research and development contract to continue work on the High Performance Knowledge Base project to create the capability for a subject matter expert (SME) to quickly build a database and models that will describe the system of interest. This contract includes one option which, if exercised, would bring the total cumulative value of the contract to $8,812,545. Work will be performed in Menlo Park, California (47%); Palo Alto, California (7%); Los Angeles, California (12%); Pensacola, Florida (1%); Evanston, Illinois (3%); Amherst, Massachusetts (5%); Austin, Texas (16%); Arlington, Virginia (4%); and Seattle, Washington (5%). The period of performance is from April 28, 2000 through November 30, 2004. This contract was competitively procured under Broad Agency Announcement 99-35 issued by the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency and published via the Commerce Business Daily. In response to that announcement, 23 offers were received and to date 11 have been funded. The Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center, San Diego, California is the contracting activity (N66001-00-C-8018).
